CALIFORNIA NMLS DEADLINE LOOMS

The deadline for all licensees under the California Financing Law or PACE program to transition onto NMLS is December 31, 2021. All licensees not yet on NMLS must establish an account in NMLS and transmit their information to the DFPI through NMLS on or before the December 31, 2021 deadline. If you are licensed on NMLS from another state, you still must add your California license to NMLS. The time for the DFPI to process the licensee's NMLS transition does not affect the licensure status of the licensee and may occur after the licensee's December 31, 2021 deadline to submit the licensee's information to the DFPI through NMLS. Any amendments to a license must be made either before transitioning or after the transition is complete. All surety bonds must also be converted to electronic surety bonds through NMLS by December 31, 2021.

If you have any problems or questions with transitioning your California Financing Law license to NMLS, please let us know. The deadline is fast approaching, do not let the end of year rush delay your transition. ☐
